

Zero Suicide: Implementing through Innovation

Heather Trish, NCC, LPC she/her
Director, Diversity, Equity, Inclusion & Trauma Informed Services
heathert@jcmh.org

Sam Taylor, LCSW
she/her
Manager of Community Engagement
samanthata@jcmh.org

Lethal Means Safety

Aiming to:

- Normalize means safety
- Increase accessibility to safety devices
- Increase comfort with means safety

Efforts:

- Creating Safe Spaces at Home public health brochure
- Lethal Means Safety Device Training for staff
- Promote Other Means Safety Trainings
- Community Suicide Prevention Trainings
- Build Relationships gun shops, pharmacies, etc.
- Distribute Devices

Virtual Caring Contact Cards

- Caring Contact Cards via USPS (45-65/month)
- Expanding to send virtually
 - Increase utilization
 - Improve accessibility
- Secure Cards
 - Sent via "e-Forms" system
 - Enter birthdate in order to open in private system
 - E-Card
 - Launching end of year!

Expanding Education

- Standard ongoing trainings
 - QPR, CAMS, CALM
- Expanded ongoing trainings
 - CAMS Book Club
 - Frequency varies; ~2x/year (4 sessions for each club)
 - CAMS Consultation
 - 6x/year
 - Zero Suicide Education and Consultation
 - 6x/year
 - Direct result of Zero Suicide Workforce Survey

QUESTIONS?

